Warning

The state justice administrations and the Federal Ministry of Justice warn against- sometimes misleading- offers, payment requests and invoices that do not originate from justice authorities in connection with the online services and announcements in the justice portal of the federal and state governments.

Recently, there has been an increase in cases in which various companies offer "services" such as entry in non-official registers or similar- sometimes using letters designed to look like official letters or protected domain names (e.g. www.handelsregisterbekanntmachungen.de). In some cases, requests for payment are simply sent for entries already made in official registers.

The offers, requests for payment or invoices and remittance slips from these companies sometimes give the impression of official forms and sometimes also contain a warning. However, such letters do not have any legal effect on their own and do not constitute a payment obligation towards the issuer. The rejection of these offers has no effect on the legal effect of the official publications.
